

KATIE HERMAN
2705 13th Rd South #2
Arlington, VA 22204
(703) 888-0259 katie_herman@apsva.us

CREDENTIAL

2042 Preliminary Multiple Subject Credential

June 2006

University of California, Santa Barbara

Virginia Preliminary License

Elementary Education PreK-6

EDUCATION

M.Ed. Teaching Emphasis

Expected July 2008

University of California, Santa Barbara

Bachelors of Arts, Sociology

March 2003

University of California, Santa Barbara

Graduated with Honors

STUDENT TEACHING

Roosevelt Elementary School, 1st Grade

Winter/Spring 2006

Santa Barbara, California

- Collaborated with other staff members to create cohesive and unified instruction
- Designed a variety of guided and independent large group activities for Language Arts, Mathematics, and Science based on students' needs
- Promoted a supportive and welcoming environment for both students and parents

Roosevelt Elementary School, 4th Grade

Fall 2005

Santa Barbara, California

- Created math lessons and activities to stimulate student interest and creative problem solving
- Developed and modified Mathematics and Language Arts curriculum for English Language Learners and Special Needs students
- Utilized assessments to guide design of future lesson plans
- Built and established a sense of community through team building activities during morning business

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Barcroft Elementary School, 2nd Grade

December 2006 – Present

Language Arts Teacher

Arlington, Virginia

- Utilized a word study program to help students develop knowledge of English spelling patterns and letter sounds
- Organized small reading groups for specialized reading instruction that met all students' needs

- Facilitated writing development through the use of an experiential writing program

Saint Mary's and All Angels School, 5th Grade

Fall 2004

Aliso Viejo, California

- Worked one-on-one with students in Reading, Science, and Creative Writing
- Created and led a Social Studies chapter review and assessment
- Supported the classroom teacher by grading papers and designing bulletin boards

Cleveland Elementary School, 3rd Grade

Fall 2004

Santa Barbara, California

- Supervised one of the language arts small group stations on a regular basis and guided students through their work
- Administered reading assessments
- Reflected on teaching practices, the classroom environment and the students' strengths and stretches

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

South Coast Writing Project	August 2005
Interview committee for incoming Teacher Education Candidates	December 2005
Student Advisory Committee for Teacher Education Program	2005 – 2006
California Technology Assistance Project, Region 8 Level One (Basic Proficiency)	June 2006
Three-week special focus seminar: Integrating Arts into the Curriculum	January 2006
Participation in development of standardized test: Academic and Social Behavior Ratings	February-March 2006

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Tutor, Ivy West

2004-2005

Educate Inc., Marina Del Rey, California

- Tutored students one-on-one in Mathematics
- Prepared students to excel on SAT I and SAT II tests
- Established relationships with parents, students, and administrative staff

HONORS AND AWARDS

Dean's Honors, Five Time Recipient, University of California, Santa Barbara

Fellowship Recipient, Teacher Education Program, University of California, Santa Barbara

Block Grant Award Recipient, Teacher Education Program, University of California, Santa Barbara

Member of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars, 2000-Present

SKILLS

- Problem-solving, organization, communication, creativity, and time management
- Ability to design, implement, and manage multiple programs and projects
- CPR certified